

AUCTION INFORMATION

This is an AUCTION for the disposal of ORNAMENTAL TURNING EQUIPMENT and allied items that are surplus to the needs of ornamental turners and collectors of OT items.

This is a CONTINUOUS auction and the items will remain on sale until a valid bid is made or the Lot is withdrawn by the seller.

If a bid of the START PRICE or more is registered, the auctioneer may post notice of the END DATE. If no further bids are received by midnight on the END DATE the current high bidder will be the winner. If further bids are received a new END DATE will be set and the under-bidder will be given another opportunity to respond.

The minimum bid on each Lot is the START PRICE. Where only a GUIDE PRICE is listed, a lower bid may be attempted, but the seller may decline it.

The winner of each Lot will be the highest bidder.

To bid, just list the Lot numbers and Descriptions of the Lots you are interested in and mark each one with the MAXIMUM amount you are prepared to bid; then email this information to the auctioneer at ornamental.turning [at] talktalk.net [enter @ in place of at]. Bids will be acknowledged and current bids will be posted on the website.

Your bid will be posted as the higher of START PRICE or the next step above the previous high bidder. Steps are £1 up to £10, £2 up to £20, £5 up to £100, £10 up to £200, £20 Up to £500, £50 up to £1000 and £100 over £1000.

Lots situated in UK are priced in GB Pounds and Lots situated in North America are priced in US Dollars. Steps for dollar bids will follow the same number pattern as for pounds.

If someone bids above your MAXIMUM you will be notified so you get a chance to bid again. The auction will continue until the under-bidder drops out.

Cost of postage will be added and notified to the winning bidder and payment must be received before goods are sent.

Payments must be cleared before goods will be dispatched. If a buyer wishes to make payment by PayPal this must be agreed in advance with the auctioneer and it will attract an additional charge of 5%

For large items that require collection or shipping the buyer will pay a deposit of 10% immediately and the balance on collection, or prior to packing and shipping at the buyer's expense.

Some sellers or buyers may not wish the price of an item to be generally published. In such cases the item may be advertised as: 'OFFERS INVITED'.

Persons interested in buying may enquire as to what price the seller has in mind; bidders who do not wish the amount of the current bid to be generally published may request that it be listed as 'UNDER OFFER'. Others who wish to consider making a bid may request to be told the amount of the current bid.

Enquiries should be addressed to John Edwards by email to [ornamental.turning \[at\] talktalk.net](mailto:ornamental.turning@talktalk.net) or by telephone to 01732-355-479
